Rehearsals in full swing for Social Security

Rehearsals for Ed Fletcher's production of Social Security are in full swing.

The comic sparks really begin to fly when the mother hits it off with the elderly minimalist artist, played by Bill Henricks, who is the art dealer's best client!

Social Security, which was the very first show to open at Early Bird Dinner Theatre, is a patron favorite. The show was big hit on Broadway and was written by one of Hollywood's top comedy screenwriters, Andrew Bergman.

This show is so well written that the actors are having a great time with their characters! As always, Robin New is directing with her impeccable vision and taste.

This hilarious comedy stars Barbara Anthony and Joseph Johnson as a married couple who are art dealers.

Social Security opens on September 11th and runs until November 2nd. The phone lines are open and reservations are quickly filling up for this all time favorite.

Their domestic tranquility is shattered upon the arrival of the wife's goody goody nerd of a sister, played by Jennifer Sloane, her uptight CPA husband, played by Toby Manion, with Tom Campbell sharing the role, and her Archetypal Jewish Mother, played by Midge Mamatas.

They are there to try to save their college student daughter from the horrors of living only for sex.

A Sneak Peek at Social Security

The Kahn's entertain the famous artist Maurice Koenig.

Barbara and David Kahn react to Trudy and Martin Heyman's announcement about Mom.

Trudy "gently" corrects Martin.

A "touching" mother and daughter moment.
